Rainbow's story - Year 3 winner

Many moons ago in the forest, lived a girl name Ellie. Ellie was no ordinary girl, she had a secret. At day she was human but at night she turned into a wolf cub.

One misty evening, the clock struck twelve and she became a wolf. She howled at the brightly lit moon and went for a walk into the misty forest. She saw another wolf. This was no ordinary wolf; it was the Wolf Queen!

The Wolf Queen was fierce and powerful. Her green eyes sparkled like a raging emerald fire. Her teeth glistened like daggers. Her shimmering fur glistened in the moonlight. She was beautiful and terrifying at the same time. The Wolf Queen spoke, "The humans are destroying our forest. We need to protect our home. We need to kill all humans!" Ellie gulped. She felt worried that they might kill her if they discovered she was human. Suddenly, she had an idea. "I will help you," said Ellie. Don't kill the humans yet. Give me one day!"

The next day she spoke to the humans and said, "Do not destroy the forest or you will be killed by wolves." They laughed and only the old man believed Ellie. He said, "Stop killing the forest!" Again, everybody laughed.

The next night Ellie returned to the forest, but this time the old man followed. As Ellie approached the Wolf Queen, she started to sniff. "I smell human," she said. The old man came out from behind the tree. "I'm only here to help," he said. "NO!" shouted the Wolf Queen, "you're going to die!"

Just as the Wolf Queen was about to kill him, the other villagers came running in. A man shot at the Wolf Queen, but Ellie jumped in the way. As Ellie fell to the floor, she turned into a human. Everybody gasped. The Wolf Queen said, "A human would save a wolf?" The humans felt bad for shooting the little girl and decided not to destroy the forest. Ellie survived, they all united and lived happily ever after.
